Allowance

1. Claims 1-5,7,8,10-12 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art references most closely resembling the applicant's claimed invention are U.S. Pat Pub (2002/0188720) Terrell et al and U.S. Pat No (5,941,947) Brown et al.

First Terrell disclosed however description of maintaining a profile and supporting a service level or deleting the profile, according to the service level supported by the profile 222. Terrell fails to describe, "a filtering optimizing part reading such an amount of access request information from the access list holding the access request information from the user terminals in the reception server, from the top, as that for the maximum permissible access number, producing packet filtering setting information for the users making access requests to be able to access to the service server, and setting the produced information in the network apparatus via said traffic control part"(claims 1,2);

Second Brown teaches of a relational database having access rights and groupings for security purposes as alleged suggestion of the optimally deal with features but Brown fails to introduce "a filtering optimizing part reading such an amount of access request information from the access list holding the access request information from the user terminals in the reception server, from the top, as that for the maximum permissible access number, producing packet filtering setting information for the users making access requests to be able to access to the service server, and setting the produced information in the network apparatus via said traffic control part” (claims 1,2).

In summary, the Examiner submits that there is no motivation to combine the aforementioned references; therefore, claims 1-5,7,8,10-12 have been deemed allowable over the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on statement of Reasons for Allowance”.
